

2021 Porkapalooza BBQ Team Application

The seventh Porkapalooza BBQ Festival will be held at Half Moon Lake Resort just 20 minutes east of Edmonton, Alberta!

The Porkapalooza KCBS-sanctioned BBQ competition (for BBQ teams) will take place on Saturday, May 30 and Sunday, May 31. As in previous years, teams will still be required to arrive on Saturday for meat inspection and the cooks' meeting.

If you would like to compete at Porkapalooza 2021, please provide the information indicated in the fields below, either digitally or hand-written, then save a copy of the PDF (if completed digitally) or scan or photograph (if completed by hand) your completed paper application and email to info@porkapalooza.ca.

Alternatively, paper copies can be faxed to 780-479-5128 or dropped off at the Alberta Pork office (4828 - 89 St. NW, Edmonton).

There will be only 24 teams accepted this year. After submitting your completed form, you will be contacted in the order the applications are received, to confirm your registration and to make payment arrangements.

Once your payment of $350 (includes GST) is received and confirmed, your place in the competition will be secured.

Additional information

One campsite stall per team will be provided. Teams will have access to 110V (15 amp) electricity, fresh water, garbage disposal and toilets in the campground area.

Extra parking away from the team site can be arranged with the resort management, and extra campsites can be arranged for family and friends (book early to avoid disappointment).

The BBQ competition layout will be posted once finalized, and further details will be provided in the coming weeks.

Life in the BBQ world, like everywhere, is under ever-changing COVID restrictions, and we appreciate your patience as we work toward a great and fun competition in 2021.

This year, in lieu of the traditional Saturday chef's challenge, we want the teams to focus their energy on taking part in what has become a staple of Alberta BBQ competitions: the potluck dinner and friendship. However, COVID-19 restrictions make it a little more challenging. Therefore, on Saturday, May 30, teams will be invited to meet virtually at the Alberta Pork Potluck Patio to display their best pork potluck creation. Bring whatever pork dish you would like, including dessert, main, appetizer, drink or snack and share a picture of your dish and team for the public to see. A special Porkapalooza panel will judge the winner(s) for some special Alberta Pork prize packages while injecting a little fun into the festival for those who participate.

Consent

Once you have read the information below, please check the boxes and sign this form.

I understand that my registration will not be finalized until my registration fee is received by the Porkapalooza BBQ Festival Society. Registrants will be invoiced following receipt of their applications. Invoices may be paid by e-transfer or cheque.

In consideration of your accepting this entry, I, the undersigned, intending to be legally bound, hereby, for myself, my heirs, my team, executors and administrators, waive and release all rights and claims for damages I or my team may have against the Porkapalooza BBQ Competition, Porkapalooza BBQ Festival Society, KCBS, their representatives, successors and assigns for any and all injuries suffered by myself, my team, or my guests in the event. I understand that Porkapalooza is an outdoor event, and that the ground cover, lighting, and weather conditions may pose potential hazards. Further, I grant full permission to the event organizers and/or agents authorized by them, to use any photographs, videotapes, recording or any other record of the event for any legitimate purpose. I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the KCBS and of the Porkapalooza BBQ Competition.
